This month at a glance

30	11	11	2	+0.03
Comments read	Questions	Unanswered	Your replies	Mood (like-weighted)

Negative comments: 27% (at least 14%, statistically). The mood score runs from -1 to +1, and comments with more likes count more.

Highlight of the month

37%

of comments are questions, and none has an answer yet

11 of 30 comments ask something: which drill, which glue, how to start from zero. Every one is a ready-made video idea or a future student. ReplyDNA drafted an answer for all 11, each in the viewer's own language.

Demo data: 30 fictional comments on 4 videos, last 30 days.

Comments that say it all

Caught a mistake

"You said pallet wood is safe but you never checked the HT/MB stamp. MB pallets are treated with methyl bromide. Please add a warning."

156 likes · safety: pin a correction today

Joke, but valid

"Bro you used a level app on your phone, that's why your shelf was crooked lol"

49 likes · a $10 fix

"Just selling"

"Every video is just an ad for your course now. Unsubscribed."

61 likes · watch the offer cap

Success story

"This is the first DIY video that didn't make me feel stupid. Built my shelf yesterday and it's actually level!"

412 likes · your most-liked comment

The 3 pillars of trust

1 Fraud claims	1 Fake accounts	0 Scam bots
0 Legal threats	0 Distress	0 Personal info

A fake "Maya's assistant" account pushed a Telegram prize: held automatically (reversible).

A paying customer can't log in: answer within 24 hours. It's your most important comment this week.

One "scam" claim: never argue in public; one calm, factual reply after your OK.

One safety correction (MB-stamped pallets): pin it today.

Viewers' questions = your next videos
